TO THE ADVISOR

This form does not replace The Common Application School Report and asks questions that do not appear on that form that will help us in our evaluation process. In signing and providing you with this form, the student has authorized the release of all requested information, including disciplinary actions. The following information is required for an application to be considered complete.

Pomona is a highly selective, coeducational college offering a comprehensive undergraduate curriculum in the liberal arts and sciences. The College draws its approximately 1,500 students from around the nation and across class, social and ethnic backgrounds. Classes average 14 students and are highly energetic; the typical method of instruction is the seminar. Students engage actively in the give and take of ideas with faculty and peers. Pomona College is the founding member of The Claremont Colleges, an educational community of five undergraduate colleges and two graduate schools.
